v.

MB FINANCIAL BANK, N.A.,

Defendant.

[Re: ECF Nos. 11, 25]

Plaintiff Kendra Nicole Walker filed this action against defendant MB Financial Bank, N.A. on August 2, 2013. Complaint, ECF No. 1.² She filed a First Amended Complaint on August 27, 2013. FAC, ECF No. 5. MB Financial answered her First Amended Complaint on September 18, 2013. Answer, ECF No. 9. All parties have consented to the undersigned's jurisdiction. Consent (Ms. Walker), ECF No. 7; Consent (MB Financial), ECF No. 14.

On September 23, 2013, MB Financial filed via the court's ECF system a motion to stay this action during the pendency and resolution of an Illinois state court case that was initiated prior to ¹ The court amends this order to make clear that the hearing is continued to January 16, 2014 at 9:30 a.m., not 11:00 a.m as the previous order stated.

1 this action. Motion, ECF No. 11. This meant that Ms. Walker's deadline to file an opposition was 2 October 7, 2013. She did not, and she also did not file a statement of non-opposition. Thus, the 3 court ordered her to file a written response by Tuesday, October 15, 2013 showing cause why she 4 failed to file either an opposition or a statement of non-opposition to MB Financial's motion to stay
5 this action. First Order to Show Cause, ECF No. 18. The court also noted that the failure to file a 6 response could be construed as a non-opposition to MB Financial's motion and result in it being 7 granted. Id.

8 On October 14, 2013, Ms. Walker filed a response. Response to First Order to Show Cause, 9 ECF No. 19. In it, her counsel explains that while her opposition to MB Financial's motion is 10 "substantially completed," "on the due date of the opposition, [he] suffered a flareup of a chronic 11 cardiac condition which required emergency medical attention" and prevented him from filing the 12 opposition on time. Id. That same day, the parties filed a stipulation that, among other things, 13 continued the deadline for Ms. Walker to file her opposition to October 28, 2013, the deadline for 14 MB Financial to file any reply by November 4, 2013, and the hearing on the motion to December 5, 15 2013. Stipulation, ECF No. 20. The court granted the stipulation on October 15, 2013. Granted
16 Stipulation, ECF No. 21.

17 October 28, 2013 came and went without Ms. Walker filing an opposition. So, the court ordered 18 her to file a written response by Tuesday, November 5, 2013 showing cause why she has failed to 19 file either an opposition or a statement of non-opposition to MB Financial's motion to stay this 20 action. Second Order to Show Cause, ECF No. 23. On November 5, 2013, Ms. Walker filed a 21 response. Response to Second Order to Show Cause, ECF No. 24. In it, her counsel says that he 22 was confused because he was under the impression that MB Financial and he had agreed to stipulate
23 to stay the case further to allow the parties to discuss settlement. Id. Indeed, Ms. Walker's counsel 24 says that MB Financial's counsel was preparing a stipulation to temporarily stay the case and 25 continue the hearing on MB Financial's motion from December 5, 2013 to January 16, 2014. Id.
26 No stipulation has been filed, however.

27 Then, on November 8, 2013, Ms. Walker filed both an administrative motion seeking leave to 28 file a late opposition as well as her opposition. Administrative Motion, ECF No. 25; Opposition,

1 ECF No. 27. Obviously, Ms. Walker should have waited to see if the court granted her 2 administrative motion seeking leave to file a late opposition before she went ahead and filed it, but 3 given that MB Financial has not opposed Ms. Walker's administrative motion (and the time for 4 doing so has passed), the court GRANTS Ms. Walker's administrative motion. MB Financial may 5 file a reply by November 21, 2013 (seven days from the date of this order).

6 In light of this situation, the court also DISCHARGES the order to show cause and finds good 7 cause to CONTINUE the hearing on MB Financial's motion to stay to January 16, 2014 at 9:30 a.m.

8 IT IS SO ORDERED.
